

Vince Fabra Introduction

(Fab-ra)

Please take a moment to silence your phones during the program in consideration for the speaker. Thank you.

My name is _____ from (position or organization) and I am excited to welcome you. This program is sponsored by _____.

Our speaker is Vince Fabra (Fah-brah) and he hates long introductions. For that reason, here are 3 things that you need to know about Vince:

#1 He is going to make you laugh. Just accept it and LOL all you want.

#2 He is going to make you think. Vince will challenge you to reflect on what you and/or your group does and ways to be better.

#3 He is going to make this time together memorable!

Please put your hands together and join me in welcoming Vince Fabra!
